Quiz Time.....

There's lots of world sporting events on at the moment but let's see if you know where these weird and wonderful not so mainstream Aussie events take place!

1.Tunarama - This tuna tossing event, a celebration of all things fishy, is held every January. It's a bit like the Olympic hammer, but with a large fish rather than a metal ball and chain, and it's open to anyone who fancies taking part. Where?

- a) Port Lincoln
- b) Albany
- c) Port Augusta

2.The Cockroach World Championship - Every Australia Day, the Story Bridge Hotel is overrun by cockroaches and that, it seems, is an attraction to bring the punters in from miles around. Where?

- a) Perth
- b) Sydney
- c) Brisbane

3.Elvis Festival - At this annual festival, the streets and parks of the host town are filled with hundreds of keen Elvis fans, look-a-likes and impersonators, giving their tribute to the "King" and rocking around the clock. Where?

- a) Gympie
- b) Townsville
- c) Parkes

Email your answers to contact@watsoniapublishing.com by 24th August. The winner will be randomly selected from all replies containing the correct answers and will be contacted by 28th August.

Congratulations to John Craft who won our last competition and got to trim his fuel bill!
